Godzilla Stars Get Big Cheers in Tokyo

From: Variety Mined: 2026-11-01 3 min read

The stars of the new film Godzilla Minus Zero came to the 39th Tokyo International Film Festival on Sunday. Just two days earlier, they were at the film's first showing in Los Angeles. The new movie opens in Japan in two days.

Kamiki Ryunosuke plays Shikishima Koichi, and Hamabe Minami plays his wife, Noriko. Kamiki said the fans' energy was amazing. In the 900-seat theater, people clapped and clapped. Some fans wore Godzilla outfits, held big posters, and asked for autographs. When director Yamazaki Takashi came to sign, fans shouted 'TAKASHI!' again and again.

Child actor Nagatani Sae plays Akiko. In the last film, Godzilla Minus One, she was very young. This time, she learned all her lines by heart.

Kamiki said the new story begins about two years after Minus One. Hamabe put the gap at two to three years. Minus One earned more than 7.65 billion yen, or $50 million, in Japan and won a prize at the Oscars.

Word Treasure

autographs -- An autograph is a famous person's own written name, given to a fan to keep.

director -- A director is the person who leads the making of a film.

lines -- An actor's lines are the words they must learn and say in a film.

yen -- Yen is the money used in Japan.

Oscars -- The Oscars are famous prizes given for the best films and film work.

Background you need

A film festival is an event where new movies are shown and the people who made them meet fans and celebrate the films.

Godzilla is a famous giant monster from Japanese movies, and new Godzilla films continue stories from earlier ones.

The new film Godzilla Minus Zero follows Godzilla Minus One, and its story begins about two years after that earlier film.

Break it down

WHO: Actors Kamiki Ryunosuke, Hamabe Minami and Nagatani Sae, director Yamazaki Takashi, and Godzilla fans.

WHAT: The stars appeared for the new film Godzilla Minus Zero and met fans who clapped, wore Godzilla outfits and asked for autographs.

WHERE: At the 39th Tokyo International Film Festival in Tokyo.

WHY: The new movie opens in Japan in two days, following the earlier film Godzilla Minus One.

Why it matters

If you love a story or character, events like this are a chance for fans like you to celebrate it together.

Test what you remember

1. Where did the stars of the new Godzilla film appear on Sunday?

- (A) In a 900-seat theater in Japan only
- (B) At the Oscars
- (C) At a theater in Los Angeles
- (D) At the 39th Tokyo International Film Festival

2. Who plays Shikishima Koichi in the new film?

- (A) Kamiki Ryunosuke
- (B) Nagatani Sae
- (C) Yamazaki Takashi
- (D) Hamabe Minami

3. Who is the director fans shouted for?

- (A) Hamabe Minami
- (B) Kamiki Ryunosuke
- (C) Nagatani Sae
- (D) Yamazaki Takashi

4. What did some fans do at the event?

- (A) They won a prize at the Oscars
- (B) They wore Godzilla outfits and asked for autographs
- (C) They learned all their lines by heart
- (D) They played Godzilla in the film

5. Which child actor plays Akiko?

- (A) Hamabe Minami
- (B) Noriko
- (C) Nagatani Sae
- (D) Kamiki Ryunosuke

6. How much did Godzilla Minus One earn in Japan?

- (A) $50 in total
- (B) 7.65 yen
- (C) More than 7.65 billion yen
- (D) 900 yen

Answer key (try the quiz first!): 1: D 2: A 3: D 4: B 5: C 6: C

Questions to think about

1. Kamiki Ryunosuke: He said the fans' energy was amazing.

MY THOUGHTS (at least 20 words):