

Sinner Smashes Tennis Record with 5 Straight Big Wins!

From: BBC Tennis Mined: 2026-05-04 3 min read

Have you ever been on a winning streak so hot you felt unstoppable? That's exactly how tennis star Jannik Sinner is feeling right now! The 24-year-old Italian just made history by winning his fifth straight Masters 1000 titlessomething no other man has ever done.

On Sunday, Sinner faced Alexander Zverev in the Madrid Open final. And wow, did he dominate! He won 6-1, 6-2 in just 58 minutes. That's less time than a soccer game! Sinner raced to a 5-0 lead in the first set and never looked back. He didn't even face a single break pointthat means Zverev never got close to taking his serve.

This victory is Sinner's 23rd in a row. He's won the last three big tournaments of this season: Indian Wells, Miami, and Monte Carlo. Plus, he won in Paris five months ago. He broke the record of legends like Novak Djokovic and Rafael Nadal, who each won four in a row before.

"I think there is a lot of work behind it," Sinner said. "A lot of dedication and sacrifice I put in every day." He also said he knows results will go down someday, but for now, he's just happy believing in himself.

What's next? If Sinner wins in Rome next week, he'll match another Djokovic record: winning all nine Masters tournaments. And if he wins the French Open next month, he'll complete a career Grand Slamwinning all four major tournaments. That's a huge deal! With his biggest rival Carlos Alcaraz out with a wrist injury, Sinner is the heavy favorite. Can anyone stop this Italian rocket? Stay tuned!

Word Treasure

break point -- In tennis, a chance for the player returning serve to win the game against the server's delivery.

Grand Slam -- Winning all four major tennis tournaments--Australian Open, French Open, Wimbledon, and US Open.

career Grand Slam -- Winning all four Grand Slam titles over the course of a player's career, not necessarily in one year.

rival -- A competitor you often face and try to beat again and again.

serve -- The shot that starts each point in tennis, hit from behind the baseline into the opponent's service box.

Background you need

The Masters 1000 tournaments are the most prestigious men's tennis events after the four Grand Slams.

Novak Djokovic (a Serbian tennis legend with 24 Grand Slam titles) and Rafael Nadal (a Spanish clay-court master) previously held the record of four straight Masters 1000 titles.

Sinner, an Italian known for his powerful groundstrokes, has now surpassed them.
